[Handwritten transcription.]

[A conversation between Mr. L.G. Parmelee and Henry Chapman, Jr. in Miss. Bangs & Co. Auction Rooms]

[Two copies, both partially eaten by termites.]

No envelope.

A conversation between

Mr L. G. Parmenter and Henry Chapman in Messrs. Baugher & Co's auction room, New 11, "to 50, 1881

Mr Parmenter said "Mr Smith has been showing me his catalogues of the British & American Birds, he values his lot of his collection between $150. and $200." Said Mr.

Mr Chapman said "see by the collection I have here and I will sell it to me for 100 ten thousand, and make the Cabinet Books and dies" Mr. P. then said "Is it not $100. thousand you pay for the collection?" Said "No, I will give you or any person." He said "Then you pay at 91 nine thousand, turn it over to me. When we make the books dies, and cabinet with it, we make a good thing out of it, which I do not begin you, as you have worked hard and have earned the sum. thing is I do not want you to take me hard," I said "We did not and we are not doing it but we would work and do our utmost to have it opening 200 or twice or thrice" He said "I am going to charge one 10% for cataloguing" Said Mr. P. "But I would not as I could not do it for that" He said "Your brother and you would do it for that" I said "He never said so as I know he always said 20% and he is the only one that it is that" but that I would ask him if I had to. (He said said 10%)

Mr. Pardee did not in any way state or mention that he thought we were to turn it over to him at whatever we paid for it. In fact his statement of the terms when we had been agreed upon for over a year and one month and as here stated in the conversation which took place, and,
which I have written out,

"I am told that Mr. D. 20% commission on interest and to have my usual a small commission for my on the great quantity which it was understood he was going to buy in. Mr. Davis if you will do that it will be all right" upon his statement of ~~these~~ ^{several} nice distinct and as he stated in the conversation which took place,

On the 28th of Oct. 1870. we intended to change my only small car by & Baileys on the great railroad. We ^{are} now understood however to be in said if you will do that, it will be all right.

[About Frossard's article in 'Numisma', I had thought of replying through some Coin Journal to some of his insinuations, especially about the Good Samaritan Shilling.]

you will be very pleased with the Collaboration. I did not think you would be able to get it
so easily. I am glad you have got it. I will have it ready
when you come
so you will be able to get it to you
as soon as possible.
I hold that you are
to be the opinion that you may get out
as much meat as I can I am very sorry
you will be glad to

you I am thinking of going over to the High Heel road I can't go in the soft ground
so we will take a path
of our own making to go there. I do not often go there

Good bye

[I have examined the catalogue + am perfectly satisfied with the descriptions. The catalogue some would say is rather unwieldy to handle in an auction room as it is so large, but I think it will sell, + if the coins sell as well as they are described I will be satisfied...]

all my books
are in the same
order
as I
had them
when
left
the country
and I
will not be able
to
find
them
again
they are
now
scattered
over
the
country.

Wanted to do more with the 1000 ft. of the Benton, but the weather is so bad
I could not get out to do any work
so I will just wait for a better time. I will try to do some more when I get back to town
and will send you a letter.

[I have read a statement from Bangs + Co. of the Bushnell Sale. They returned coins from Frossard $15.60, what about them + claim you owe them $139.40 besides the $15.60 from Frossard. They sent me a list of your coins in the sale + I find some mistakes in it. Will you send me a list, the numbers + see if we cannot straighten out this affair.]
